

Addiction & Mental Health Services | services de lutte contre les dépendances et de santé mentale
Kingston Frontenac Lennox & Addington

Media Release

For immediate release

Addiction and Mental Health Services - KFLA Recruits Board Members

November 25, 2020 - Addiction and Mental Health Services of Kingston, Frontenac, Lennox and Addington (AMHS-KFLA) is a vibrant and vital organization providing high quality support services to nearly 7,000 individuals in our region with addiction and mental health concerns.

To support future governance of the organization and assist the agency in delivering on its vision and mission, the agency is now seeking to recruit a diverse and dynamic Board of Directors to act in a collaborative governance capacity to lead the organization now and into the future.

“As an agency, we look forward to the exciting work ahead with our partners and new board of directors as we embark on this new journey. Together we will work to support new initiatives and opportunities for collaboration to enhance the network of care in Kingston, Frontenac, Lennox & Addington, and help us to achieve our organizational vision of a community where everyone has wellness, acceptance and a sense of belonging.”

- Bruce Swan, Supervisor at AMHS-KFLA

AMHS-KFLA Leadership are focused to build, alongside key care partners, an integrated system of mental health and addictions care across the region. Recruitment efforts will support formation of an experienced board of nine (9) that embraces this aim.

With the recent announcement of the inception of the Frontenac, Lennox and Addington - Ontario Health Team (FLA-OHT), of which AMHS-KFLA is a proud contributing member, AMHS-KFLA is seeking to form collaborative policy governance which will oversee the integration of AMHS-KFLA within the overall system of care with four key areas of focus –

Addiction & Mental Health Services | services de lutte contre les dépendances et de santé mentale
Kingston Frontenac Lennox & Addington

Media Release

1. Improving the patient and caregiver experience.
2. Improving the health of populations.
3. Reducing the per capita cost of health care.
4. Improving the work life of providers.

Board members may come from partner and community organizations or the public at large; interested potential applicants are invited to review the application requirements and package located on the agency website (www.amhs-kfla.ca/board-of-directors) and express their interest no later than December 11, 2020.

Media Contact

Terra Smith

Communications Coordinator, AMHS-KFLA

Email: media@amhs-kfla.ca | Web: www.amhs-kfla.ca

Connect with us:

AMHS-KFLA is a non-profit organization delivering community-based mental health, addiction and housing services to nearly 7,000 individuals in the City of Kingston and the counties of Frontenac and Lennox and Addington. Quality services are provided with dignity, hope and in confidence.

AMHS-KFLA 24-Hour Crisis Line

Kingston & Frontenac: 613-544-4229

Lennox & Addington: 613-354-7388